

Providing European level education at the largest department of its type in the Czech Republic. The department consists of highly qualified personnel with a broad spectrum of developed expertise and research on program topics, delivered by 3 professors, 8 associate professors, over 20 assistant professors, and a large number of visiting lecturers from abroad.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROGRAMS

English programs are taught fully in English and subject to tuition

UNDERGRADUATE
(BACHELOR PROGRAMS)

International Relations and European Politics

GRADUATE

International Relations and European Politics

European Governance

Energy Policy Studies

Joint Master Programme in International Relations: Europe from the Visegrad Perspective

POSTGRADUATE

International Relations and European Politics

STUDY IN CZECH

Czech programs are taught fully in Czech and free of tuition

BACHELOR PROGRAMS

International relations

European Studies

MASTER PROGRAMS

International relations

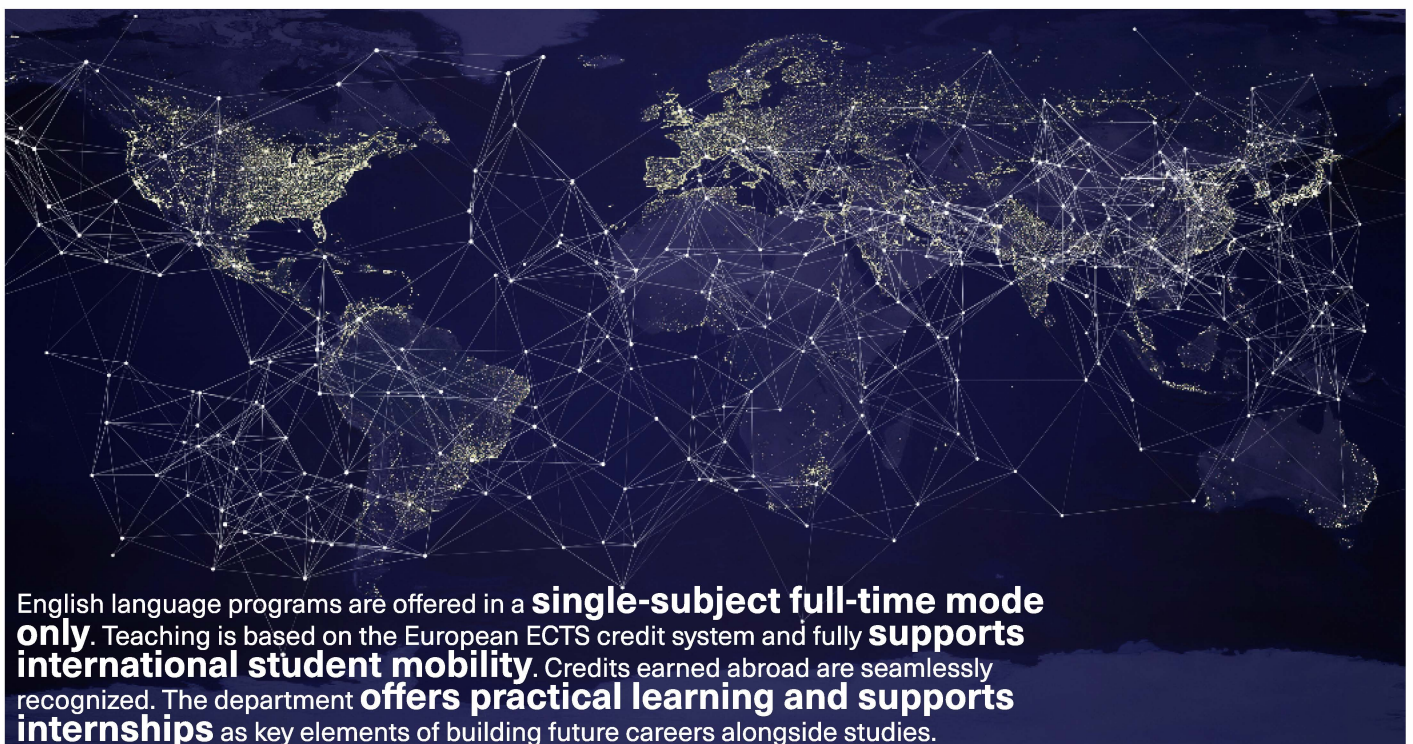

European Studies

International Relations and Energy Security

Economic Policy and International Relations

DOCTORAL PROGRAM

Mezinárodní vztahy a evropská politika

English language programs are offered in a single-subject full-time mode only. Teaching is based on the European ECTS credit system and fully supports international student mobility. Credits earned abroad are seamlessly recognized. The department offers practical learning and supports internships as key elements of building future careers alongside studies.